

not

Contraction Fold-a-Book

The boy's mom says, "I _____ have not _____ seen you smile all day! You _____ must not _____ be sad. You _____ should not _____ go out today, but you can still play indoors."

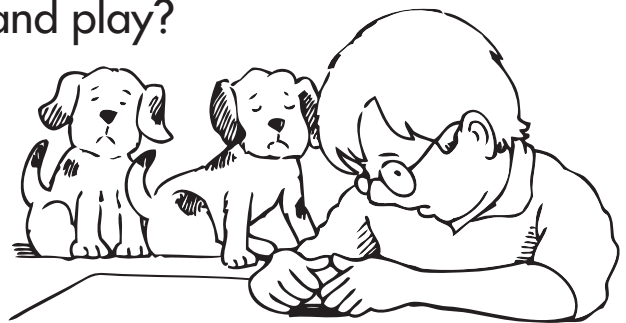

The boy _____ cannot _____ play. The dogs _____ will not _____ play if the boy _____ does not _____ play.

The boy and his dogs _____ did not _____ have to worry. Mom was able to make a sad day a glad day.

What a Day!

The boy _____ is not _____ happy. His dogs _____ are not _____ happy, either. Why _____ do not _____ they all go out and play?

will

Contraction Strip Book

Contractions with Will

When you make contractions with will,
Simply take out the w and i.
You will becomes you'll,
and we will becomes we'll.
It is really quite easy—just try!

1

The contraction of I will is _____.

The contraction of he will is _____.

The contraction of she will is _____.

The contraction of they will is _____.

2

The contraction of it will is _____.

The contraction of who will is _____.

The contraction of what will is _____.

The contraction of that will is _____.

3

Make sentences using some of the contractions you wrote.

4