1. Have students bring photos to class.
2. Instruct them to glue their photos to Poppin' Patterns Cards Designer Cut-Outs.
3. Invite students to use a computer to type and print out their picture descriptions and glue, the text directly on the cards. Or let students handwrite their captions
4. Hole-punch the edges of the cards.
5. Use two Black Small ¾" Ring-Its!® to bind the cards together to make a class book.

Tip:

Class books are a great way to have every student participate in the writing process. Have students share about themselves, their interests, or make up a story of their own. Collect a page from each child, and bind the pages together with Ring-Its!® to create a class book. For other class book ideas, check out the resource book Standards-Based Class Books (CTP 2213).
