

Long Ago and Today

2 Long ago, farmers plowed the fields.

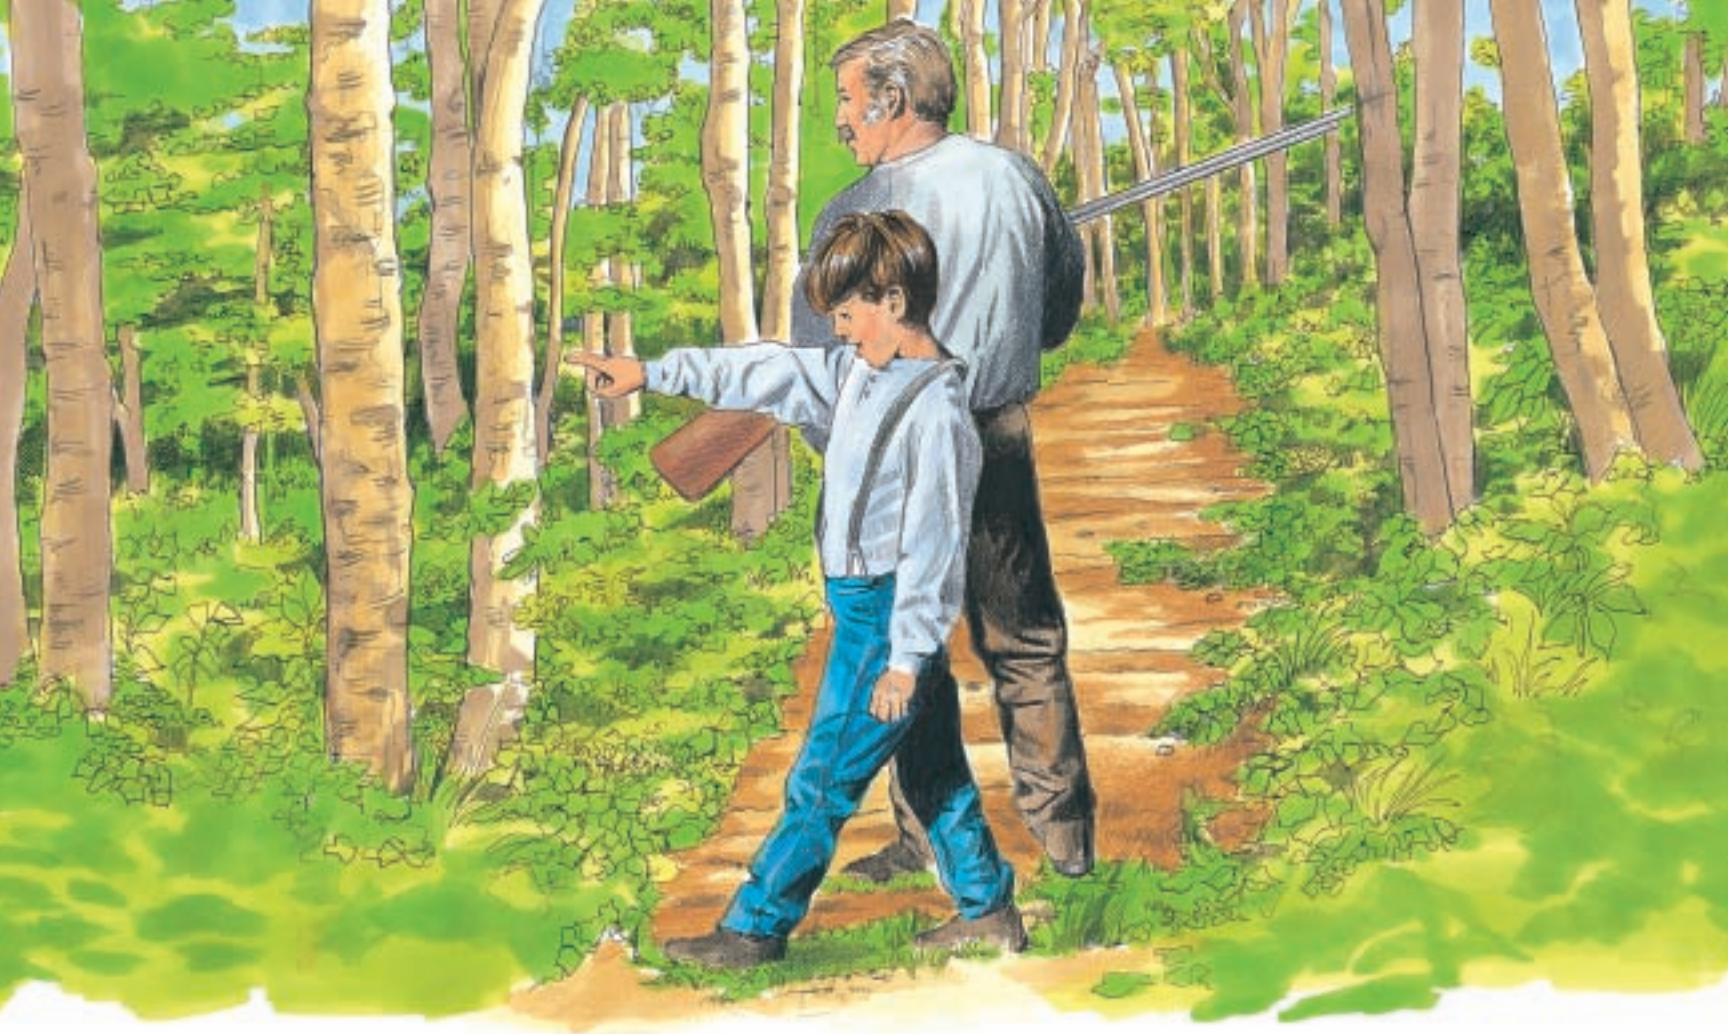

Today, farmers plow the fields.

Long ago, people traveled.

Today, people travel.

6

Long ago, people hunted for food.

Today, people “hunt” for food.

8

Long ago, people lived in houses.

Today, people live in houses.

Long ago, families cooked meals.

Today, families cook meals.

Long ago, children went to school.

Today, children go to school.

Today, children play, too!

Long Ago and Today

Social Studies Concepts

- ◆ People today have similarities and differences to people long ago.
- ◆ Long ago, geography and economies affected the way people supplied their needs and wants.
- ◆ History is a record of what happened in the past.

Related Activity

How Have Things Changed?

Interview a grandparent or older family member about his or her life as a child. Compare and contrast five things about his or her life with your own life.

*Grandma helped her mother make bread on Fridays.
I help my mom buy bread at the supermarket.*

*Grandma made popcorn in a big pot on the stove.
I make popcorn by putting a popcorn bag in the microwave for a few minutes.*

*Grandma had a dog. His name was Buster Brown.
I have a dog. Her name is Candy.*

Learn to Read Social Studies Series

LEVEL I		LEVEL II
CTP 3901	Barney Bear, World Traveler	CTP 3927	My Global Address
CTP 3902	Pilgrim Children Had Many Chores	CTP 3928	In Times Long Ago
CTP 3903	Can You Read a Map?	CTP 3929	Maps
CTP 3904	People Say Hello	CTP 3930	Just Like Me
CTP 3905	How Can I Help?	CTP 3931	Mr. Noisy's Helpers
CTP 3906	We Can Share at School	CTP 3932	Families Share
CTP 3907	The World in a Supermarket	CTP 3933	Long Ago and Today
CTP 3908	Five Little Monsters Went to School	CTP 3934	Cat and Dog at School
CTP 3909	Mr. Noisy Builds a House	CTP 3935	Houses
CTP 3910	What Do We Need?	CTP 3936	Good Choices for Cat and Dog
CTP 3911	I Am Special	CTP 3937	The One and Only Special Me
CTP 3912	Oranges for Orange Juice	CTP 3938	Safety Counts!

CTP 3933

Creative Teaching Press, Inc.

EMERGENT
READER
LEVEL II