

Table of Contents

Introduction 3

DEFINING SUMMARY

What Is a Summary? 4
The Picnic 5
Main Idea or Detail? 6
What Happened? 7
Cross Out the Details 8

RESTATING MAIN IDEAS

Animal Rewrite 9
Story Webs and Main Ideas 10
Bike Problems 11
Mainly Hot Dogs 12
Sorting Shells 13

WRITING SUMMARIES

Hearty Summary 14
Softball Summary 15
Tornado Time 16
Cactus Summary 17
Time to Move 18
Tip's Run 19

SUMMARY READING COMPREHENSION

Which Is Best? 20
Summary of Choice 21
Fall Fun 22
Mary Cassatt 23
Hippopotamus 24

DEFINING MAKING INFERENCES

What I Already Know 25
Shop Talk 26
Clues from Text 27
Baby Clues 28

READING STRATEGIES FOR MAKING INFERENCES

Study the Picture 29
Critter Clues 30
Stop and Think 31

MAKING INFERENCES PRACTICE

Breakfast Bar 32
Ready to Read 33
Career Clues 34
Choose the Ending 35
Letter from Camp 36
Frankie's Present 37

MAKING INFERENCES READING COMPREHENSION

Sick Day 38
Dinnertime 39
Mr. Snowflake 40
Line Leader 41
Balancing Bob 42
Getting Pushy 43
Yuri's Ride 44
Monkey Business 45

Answer Key 46

Sorting Shells

Remember, titles can give you clues to the main ideas in stories or articles. You can often use titles to find main ideas and help you write summaries.

Read each title in the Word Box. Read the main idea sentences. Match the titles and sentences. Write a title from the box inside the shell that matches each sentence.

When Clams Open
Baby Turtles

Moving Day for Hermit Crabs
Growing Snails

1

A turtle is born in its shell.

2

A hermit crab leaves its shell when it gets too big.

3

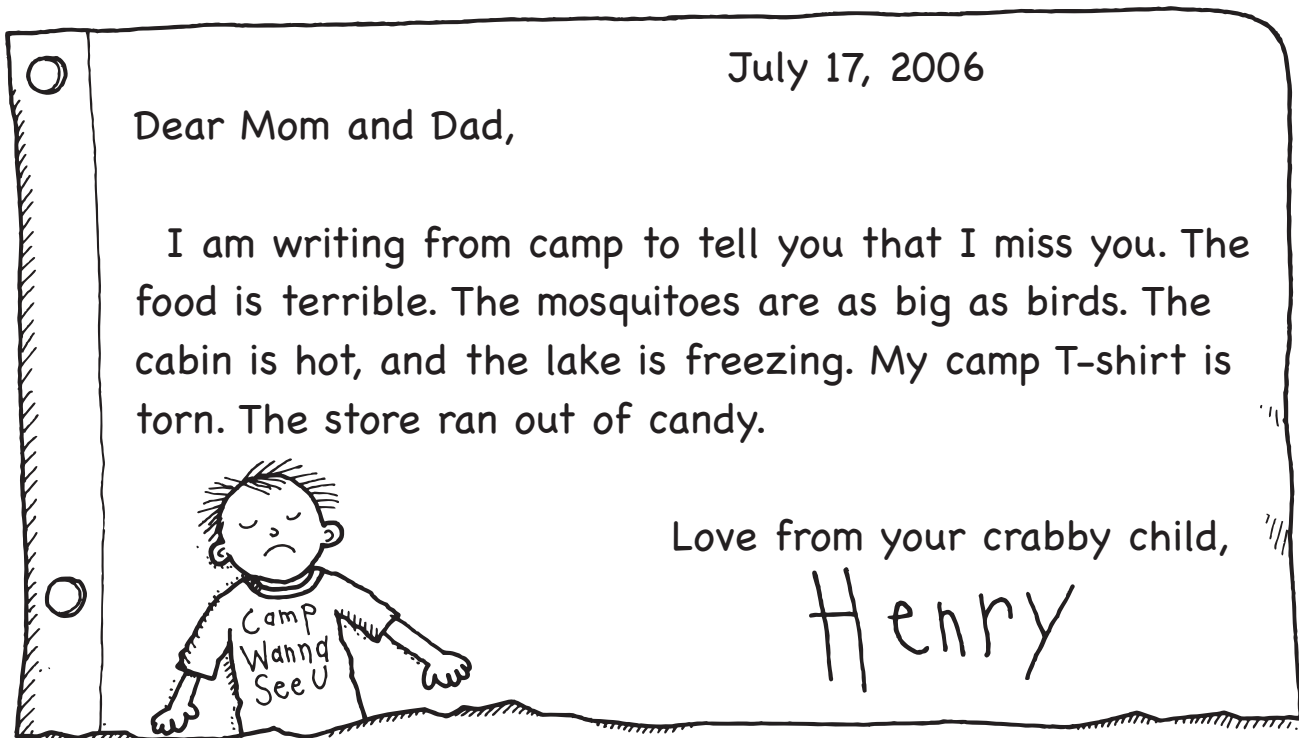

A snail's shell grows over time.

4

A clam only opens its shell to take in food and water.

Letter from Camp

Read the letter. Use what you already know and clues from the text and pictures to decide what the author means.

Read each sentence. Write Yes next to three ideas that you can infer from Henry's letter.

- 1 _____ Henry is homesick.
- 2 _____ Henry loves camp.
- 3 _____ Henry likes swimming in the lake.
- 4 _____ Henry wants to go home.
- 5 _____ Henry is sad.
- 6 _____ Henry doesn't like candy.