

Creating an Olympic Event

A sport must be popular in at least 50 countries on three continents before it can become part of the Summer Games. A sport must be popular in at least 25 countries on two continents to be included in the Winter Games. There are more that 23 official summer sports and more than 7 official winter sports.

Create a unique sporting event for the Olympic Games. Draw a picture and write about your new Olympic event.

